

General Information
Course name KSSFaK/ DSaSZ2/15	History of Slovak and World Journalism II	ECTS Credits	5
		Semester	summer (BC, MA)
Aims
Overview of the latest history of journalism in the world and in the Slovak Republic – the role of journalism in the world of digital media.
Contents
Contents: Changes in the world of media after the advent of the Internet and after the socio-political changes in Europe – especially in Eastern Europe – at the end of the 20th century. Syllabus: The Internet era, changes in the media system in Slovakia after 1989, a dual broadcasting system, legal regulation of media activities in Slovakia, professional associations and organizations of journalists in Slovakia and in the world.
Evaluation
Active participation in seminar discussions (30%), a PowerPoint presentation focused on the latest history of the national journalism in the student's country – the current media system in the country – presented on the lesson (30%), and an oral exam (40%).
Bibliography
BRIGGS, P. – BURKE, P.: A Social History of the Media: From Gutenberg to the Internet (2009) DANESI, M.: Dictionary of Media and Communications (2014) DANESI, M.: Encyclopedic Dictionary of Semiotics, Media, and Communications (2000) FELDMAN, T.: An Introduction to Digital Media (1997) and other publications.

