

General Information
Course name	Master's Thesis Seminar 2	ECTS Credits	3
		Semester	summer
Aims
The final version of master thesis submitted to supervisor.
Contents
Week 1 Introductions. Week 2 Review. Thesis and Structure, Writing, editing, proofreading. Week 3 Readings discussion, Anticipating objections. Week 4 First Paper Due. Peer Review. Week 5 Edits Due. Paper review. Week 6 Plagiarism and Research. Week 7 Tutorial Week. Week 8 Second Paper Due. Peer Review. Argument Theory and types. Week 9 Edits Due. Paper Review. Week 10 "That's what I meant to say." Week 11 Draft Due. Peer review. Week 12 Edits Due. Revision Strategies. Week 13 Tutorial Week. Week 14 Tutorial Week. Final Paper Due.
Evaluation
Completing the course requires regular consultations with supervisor of master thesis throughout the semester, at least once a week at the time defined by supervisor. Another precondition for completing the course is submission of the final version of master thesis to supervisor (no later than two weeks before deadline for uploading of master thesis to AIS system) who will review the text and assess whether the submitted text complies with essential minimum requirements regarding the content and form of master thesis. If the master thesis complies with all the requirements, the supervisor will give A-E. If the submitted text does not comply with the essential minimum requirements regarding the content and form of master thesis, the supervisor will give FX. A 93-100% B 86-92% C 78-85% D 72-77% E 65-71% FX 0- 64%
Bibliography
Recommended literature: MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers, seventh edition. 2009. Materials published on the website of UK UPJS. Materials supplied by supervisor.			