CONDITIONS OF ADMISSION
FOR THE STUDY OF AN ACCREDITED BACHELOR'S DEGREE
STUDY PROGRAMME

European Public Administration in English – Full-Time Form of Study

for academic year 2024/2025

In accordance with Article 25 of the Statute of the Pavol Jozef Šafárik University in Košice, Faculty of Public Administration, I hereby set the following conditions for admission to the study of the accredited study programme European Public Administration in English for the academic year 2024/2025 in the full-time form of study

General Information about the Admission Procedure

The admission procedure for an applicant begins with the delivery of an application for university studies to the Pavol Jozef Šafárik University in Košice, Faculty of Public Administration (hereinafter referred to as the "Faculty" or "FPA").

Planned Number of Admitted Applicants

Study Program	Study Degree	Study Language	Study Form	Duration of Study in Years	Planned Number of Admitted Applicants
European Public Administration	Bachelor	English	Full-time	3	30

Study Fee

According to the Order of Fees for the academic year*

Deadline for Applications

By April 30, 2024

Basic Conditions for Admission to Studies

The basic condition for admission to Bachelor degree studies is the acquisition of a complete secondary education or a complete secondary vocational education (Section 56(1) of Act No. 131/2002 Coll. on Higher Education and on Amendments and Additions to Certain Acts, as amended).

Additional Conditions for Admission to Studies

The applicant must have passed a state examination in English language or other examination demonstrating a level of the English language proficiency of at least B2.

Applicants will be admitted according to the number of points on a waiting list based on their results in secondary school (maximum 40 points), significant achievements in competitions (10 points), language exams (10 points) and the results of the admission interview (40 points). A maximum of 100 points can be obtained in total.

The admission interview takes place online via the MS Teams platform (or an alternative), in front of a three-member Admissions Committee.

The Admissions Committee, including its chairperson, is appointed by the Dean of the Faculty on the basis of a proposal from the person responsible for the study programme.

The content of the admission interview is mainly the verification of the applicant's general prerequisites for studies and the applicant's motivation for studies.

The interview will take place on the selected date from May 6, to June 7, 2024. The applicant will be notified of the exact date and time of the interview, including the categories of questions, no later than 10 days before the date of the interview.

Secondary school performance points will be awarded on the basis of the grade point average achieved:

- the average of the grades on the end-of-year certificates for the last two years of study at the secondary school preceding the final year of study,
- from the half-year certificate for the final year of the secondary school study

Opportunities for Graduates in Practice

Graduates are prepared to work as professionals in all branches of public administration and the public sector in the Slovak Republic, in the institutions of the European Union, as well as in international organisations. In the course of their studies they will acquire theoretical knowledge in the field of public administration and related disciplines - political science, sociology, law and economics with an emphasis on the functioning of the European Union. The graduate's knowledge overview includes the interconnectivity and familiarity with political science and sociology principles of public administration in a democratic state, especially in the Slovak Republic and the European Union, the constitutional and legal foundations of public administration with a focus on state administration and local self-government, as well as economic principles and contexts, including organisational and management issues and their practical application in the actual practice of public administration. Graduates of this study programme will acquire the basic knowledge to carry out work activities with a predominance of intellectual work in public administration. Consequently, they will be able to perform tasks, solve problems and take decisions on basic issues at all levels of public administration. They will acquire the skills:

- To implement theoretical knowledge in improving and making public administration more efficient,
- To use the policies and principles of communication skills both within the organisation and in the public administration-citizen relationship,
- To plan and organize the processes and activities in public administration,
- To apply the norms of primary and secondary law of the European Union related to the issue of public administration in practice,
- To issue simple individual legal acts and prepare documents for the adoption of normative legal acts in the field of public administration.
