In Supplement, there are the full-text accounts of participants of VI International Symposium „Anthropization and Environment of Rural Settlements. Flora and Vegetation“. The Symposium took place from 28th September to 1st October 2004 in Educational and Training Institution of Pavol Jozef Šafárik University Košice in Danišovce. There were 45 conferrees from 5 countries. One part of Symposium was the excursion to Slovenský raj National Park and to The National Natural Reserve Dreveník. The next conferention will take place in June 2006 and it will be organized by colleagues from Hungary.
