

PETER FEDORČÁK

SOCIAL ISSUES
IN THE FIRST
CZECHOSLOVAK
REPUBLIC
(1918 - 1938)

OLSZTYN 2010

Contents

Contents	3
Introduction.....	5
I. The interwar period of Czechoslovakia	9
II. Social welfare before creation of Czechoslovakia.....	14
The Austro-Hungarian social legislation of 19th and 20th century	15
Partial enactment of insurance system	18
Social provisions influenced by World War I.....	19
III. The social conditions of Czechoslovak population in 1918 - 1923	21
Economic problems of the new State.....	21
Economic recovery 1919 - 1921	22
Post-war crisis 1921 - 1923	24
War impact on social issue.....	24
Health state of population.....	26
Social unrests.....	27
Diferentions among Lands in Czechoslovakia.....	27
Social issues and policy	28
Social issues and nationalism	29
Socialist parties and radical Left	30
Battle of "Lidový dům"	31
IV. Social reforms of post-war period	33
Political background to the adoption of social reforms	34
The Land reform.....	36
Eight-hours working day	37
Social insurance.....	38
Trade inspection	38
Collective agreements	39
War disabled and the State Repatriation	39
Ministry of Social Welfare and the Social Institute	40
Enacting of unemployment benefits.....	41
Distribution of benefits for unemployed	42
Other forms of support for the unemployed and poor	44
Health care.....	46
Youth care	47

V. The stabilization period 1924 - 1929	49
Economic situation	49
Social conditions	50
Implementation of the Ghent system	51
The social insurance enactment.....	54
Privilege leave	56
VI. The Great Depression, Czechoslovakia and the social issue	57
The social status of population.....	58
The movement of unemployed.....	60
Discussion about the revision of unemployment insurance.....	61
The financial situation of trade unions	63
Preparing of new insurance system.....	64
The State's subsistence action.....	66
Involvement of associations and municipalities in social care	67
The other non-contribution support for unemployed	68
Conclusion	70
Bibliography	72