

Following conditions from Epidemiology are required to be fulfilled the subject

1. Active presence at seminars. Non-participation in practical exercises and seminars shall be properly excused with the teacher, who shall determine a substitute in the corresponding form. The student may replace the excused practical exercises within three weeks at most during the semester. Student with more than three absences is not qualified to continue studying the subject and to pass exam.
2. Elaboration and presentation of the seminar work.