

Final exam from Psychology and Medical Communication (PaMC)
General Medicine, 2024/2025

The final test from Psychology and Medical Communication is performed in the form of ROGO test (<https://rogo.lf.upjs.sk/>). The test includes 30 questions derived from the lectures that have been presented at portal UPJS titled Psychology & Medical Communication - lectures for General Medicine students: <https://portal.lf.upjs.sk/articles.php?aid=567>

Students do sign for a final exam in AIS from Psychology and Medical Communication after meeting all duties and conditions. If student enters the exam despite missing duties and conditions, test result will not be accepted.

Terms of final test are as follows:

Wednesday 07/05/2025 at 3.15 pm in auditorium P4 (preterm)
07/05/2025 at 3.45 pm in auditorium P4 (preterm)
Wednesday 21/05/2025 at 8.30 am (for auditorium see AIS)

Each test question contains 4 statements, only 1 is correct. Test lasts 20 minutes. After 20 minutes, it is necessary to end up the test manually, student is not log out by ROGO system. After exceeding the time limit, teacher will receive notification that student did not keep time. It means the reassessment of test result, or not accepting the examination.

Students who do not pass the test (< 60%, FX) have the opportunity to perform the retake exam. The %-results of the final test exam are transferred into the mark in a following range:
91 to 100% awarded 'Pass - A - Excellent',
84 to 90 % awarded 'Pass - B - Very Good',
75 to 83 % awarded 'Pass - C - Good',
68 to 74 % awarded 'Pass - D - Satisfactory',
60 to 67 % awarded 'Pass - E - Sufficient',
<60% failed - FX - insufficient.

The assessment of the subject Psychology and Medical Communication up to all conditions listed in Information letter will be enrolled in the student's AIS account within two working days. According to the Study rules, students have the right for 1 regular exam term and 2 retake exams. If students are re-entering the course, they have the access to 1 regular term and 1 retake exam. Students are recommended to check out their familiarity with the system, skills in testing ROGO, and auditorium (updated in AIS) before entering the final exam.

In accordance with the Study Rules and Regulations of UPJS FM, student has the right not to accept the mark of the taken exam. Under conditions of distance study, students have to declare this decision via e-mail sent from the student's account (name.surname@student.upjs.sk), and address it to the secretary office of the department (adriana.palkovitsova@upjs.sk). This has to be done within 48 hours from the start of the test. After doing this, the mark from exam turns to FX, and student can enter retake exam. For more information, see Study Rules and Regulations of UPJS FM.
