

Study branch: General Medicine

Name of study subject: Tropical Medicine

Class/semester: 5 th class, winter semester

Number of lessons: Seminars 14 hours

Place: on-line

---

Classes are scheduled for the week 1.2.-3.2.2027 according to the following schedule, but there may be some changes during the semester.

|                       | Topics                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                              |
|-----------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------|
| 1.2.20271,00 p.m. | Clinical situations in the tropics. Diseases of environment. Heat stress and associated disorders. Pre-travel advice and immunisation.                                                                                                     | Javorská                     |
|                       | Fever in the tropics. Typhoid and paratyphoid fever. Malaria. Leishmaniosis. Presentation of case reports..                                                                                                                            | Rovňáková                    |
| 2.2.20271,00 p.m. | Viral hepatitis in tropical countries. Plague.                                                                                                                                                                                             | Kristian                     |
|                       | HIV infection in tropical countries. LeprosyTropical gastroenterological infections. Travellers' diarrhoea. Cholera. Diarrhoe caused by protozoa. Giardiasis, amoebiasis. Schistosomiasis. African sleeping sickness. Chagas' disease. | ZahornackýParaličová |
| 3.2.20271,00 p.m. | Haemorrhagic fever (Dengue, Lassa, Ebola, Marburg disease). Yellow fever.                                                                                                                                                                  | Porubčin                     |
|                       | Final test                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Paraličová                   |

Košice 31.08.2026

doc. MUDr. Zuzana Paraličová, PhD.
Deputy head of the department