INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS OFFICE

The International Relations Office implements activities that lead to the intensification of the international dimension of the university. One of its goals is to mediate student and teacher mobilities within the EU and elsewhere.

The Office also promotes and supports the organisation of the Erasmus + program, which makes it possible to stimulate and intensively support the education and training of university students and recent graduates in the form of international mobilities for studies or/and traineeships. It offers students the opportunity to use the following types of mobility activities

- Student mobility for studies (SMS) - duration of 2 months (or one semester or trimester) to 12 months for each degree of study,
- Student mobility for traineeships, including recent graduates (SMP) - duration of 2-12 months for each degree of study,
- Combined mobility - the student can combine a practical traineeship with a study visit as one mobility abroad.
