Opinions - Total students

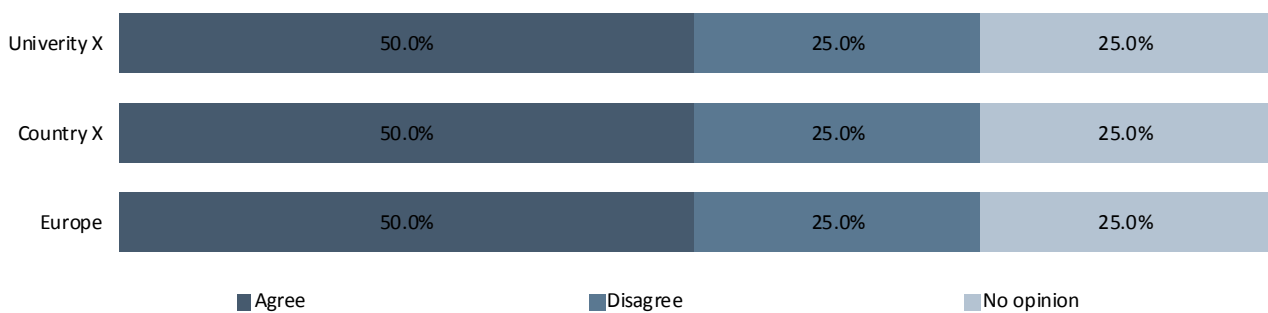

Students should contribute a major part of the cost of their tertiary education

A bachelor degree alone does not provide the skills necessary for entry to the labour market

I don't have any concerns about my future career

After graduating I will leave my country to find a professional position abroad

About trendence

trendence, a part of the GTI Group, is Europe's leading research institute, specialising in the areas of Employer Branding, personnel marketing and recruiting.

trendence surveys over 200,000 students, graduates and young professionals on a yearly basis to extract information about their expectations and behaviour in terms of their employer of choice and career decisions. The results of these studies support the recruitment and human resources departments of companies in making important decisions about their recruitment and marketing strategies, and enable them to gather vital information about potential recruits.

The surveys are conducted in various countries as well as on a pan-European and international level. Examples of trendence research surveys are Das Absolventenbarometer (Germany), The UK Student Barometer, The European Student Barometer, 'Das Schweizer Absolventenbarometer' (Switzerland) and 'Le Baromètre Etudiants Français' (France)
