

General Information
Course name KSSFaK/LFT/07	Literature in Movie and Television	ECTS Credits	2
		Semester	Winter
Aims
As this course has interdisciplinary nature, it will be primarily focused on comparison of literature and its movie (or television) adaptations. In order to achieve a relevant comparison, it is important to understand the different aspects of these genres, thus both movie and literature poetics are recommended as study literature. Our goals are to be able to analyze chosen texts and their adaptations from semantic, thematic and axiological point of view. Moreover, this course would like to emphasize a critical perception of art, thus a question of aesthetics will always be present. Finally, the classes would like to explore socio-cultural paradigms that mirror in the style of chosen adaptations.
