When accessing teaching in the presence form at the beginning of each teaching week, the student is obliged to prove to the teacher by a negative antigen or PCR test not older than 48 hours.

The students with no exception of testing will be tested before starting classes on Mondays at 7.30 a. m. beside the Aula. The validity of the negative test for purposes of full-time teaching is a maximum of 7 days. The testing is for students taking the classes in presence form.

An exception to testing for COVID-19 is a student who:

- overcame COVID-19 infection and no more than 3 months have elapsed since the date of confirmation of positivity,
- has been vaccinated against COVID-19 with two doses of vaccine and a minimum of 14 days have elapsed since the second dose.

A student who, due to serious health reasons, is unable to attend full-time teaching will notify the teacher and the study department by e-mail, no later than on the day of teaching.
