Aims and Scope of the journal
Biophysical Chemistry publishes original work and reviews in the areas of chemistry and physics directly impacting biological phenomena. Quantitative analysis of the properties of biological macromolecules, biologically active molecules, macromolecular assemblies and cell components in terms of kinetics, thermodynamics, spatio-temporal organization, NMR and X-ray structural biology, as well as single-molecule detection represent a major focus of the journal. Theoretical and computational treatments of bio-macromolecular systems, macromolecular interactions, regulatory control and systems biology are also of interest to the journal.

Publication information: Biophysical Chemistry (ISSN 0301-4622). For 2021, volumes 268–279 (12 monthly publications) are scheduled for publication. Subscription prices are available upon request from the Publisher or from the Elsevier Customer Service Department nearest you or from this journal’s website (http://www.elsevier.comlocate/biophyschem).
